

Guilds Gathering: Colour - The Full Spectrum
19 - 21 June 2020, University of Worcester

Draft Programme

Friday 19 June
15:00	Registration opens / Retreat Room available	The Retreat Room will be open daily as an informal space for attendees to take a break or craft
18:00 – 19:30	Buffet dinner
19:40	Welcome to Guilds Gathering by Jennie Parry, AGWSD President
19:45 – 20:45	Talk: ' Margo Selby Woven Textiles - Art into Industry ' by Margo Selby
20:45 – 21:45	Talk: ' The growing Brightness of Colour: Colour Development in Textiles from Medieval Times to the 20th Century ' by Susan Kay-Williams
Saturday 20 June
08:00	Breakfast for residents
09:30	Registration for day visitors
10:00-12:30	Morning practical session, to include tea/coffee break	Attendees will be split into two groups and will take either ' Textile Colour Studies ' with Margo Selby or ' Adventures in Colour Blending ' with Alison Daykin at 10:00. Attendees will take the second workshop in the afternoon – with all attendees taking both workshops over the course of the day
12:30-14:00	Lunch
14:00-16:30	Afternoon practical session, to include tea/coffee break
19:00	Dinner and after-dinner speech by Daniel Harris
Sunday 21 June

08:00	Breakfast for residents
09:30-11:30	Talk: 'Capturing Nature's Colours' by Caroline Nixon, plus show and tell with the opportunity for questions, to include tea/coffee break
11:30-12:00	Overview of the Foundation Certificates by Janet Maher
12:00-12:15	Closing Remarks by Janet Crowther, AGWSD Acting Chair
12:30-14:00	Lunch
14:00	Close
Afternoon (optional)	Visit to London Cloth Company Mill (limited places available)

Exhibitions

An exhibition of work submitted for assessment by students studying for the Certificate of Achievement, and an exhibition of work by recent graduates from textile degrees, will be open to attendees on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday.